

STANFORD, CITY OF PALO ALTO AND RELATED CELEBRATE
OPENING OF MAYFIELD PLACE

Related California, Stanford University, and City of Palo Alto civic leaders celebrated the grand opening of Mayfield Place, a 70-unit, mixed-use affordable housing community located on a 1.8 acre site in the Stanford Research Park in Palo Alto. The 7,000 square feet of street level retail houses the Vista Center for the Blind and Visually Impaired and local café, Fambrini's. Mayfield Place is the result of a model private partnership with the city to provide vital resources to the community. ▶
